¹ As noted in that announcement, once all CPS3 have been resold to the nominated purchaser, CPS3 will be repaid or converted, with Suncorp converting some or all of them into ordinary shares in the hands of the nominated purchaser. Any CPS3 not converted into ordinary shares will be repaid in the hands of the nominated purchaser. It is expected that the repayment will be substantially by way of reduction of capital, with the balance returned by way of redemption. The New Shares are being issued to fund the redemption component.
